WASHINGTON	The Wellness Community (TWC)	The TWC and the LAF are working together to create a national, community-based program designed to support and empower people with cancer after treatment, called Live Well! Life Beyond Cancer. The Live Well! program will build upon TWC's popular Return to Wellness program, which was created to meet the emotional and physical needs of post-treatment breast cancer survivors. The Live Well! program will be available for both male and female survivors post-treatment, regardless of their cancer diagnosis. The program will use interactive education, support, exercise and nutrition to address the long-term effects of treatment as well as the psychosocial needs of survivors during their transition from treatment to post-treatment. The new program will include an interactive workbook and CD-ROM for ongoing support and reinforcement of key messages, research to improve and evaluate the impact of the program and an online version and resources to extend the program to a broader audience of cancer	The Live Well!
